

Asia Wealth Management Operations & Technology

Despite a surge of high net worth individuals in Asia, a survey by SS&C Technologies reveals that banks in the region think their technology is not up to standard to meet customer demands for reporting and analytics.*

* Source: Performance Measurement Survey 2014, SS&C Technologies

85%

don't believe their middle office technology is up to standard

57%

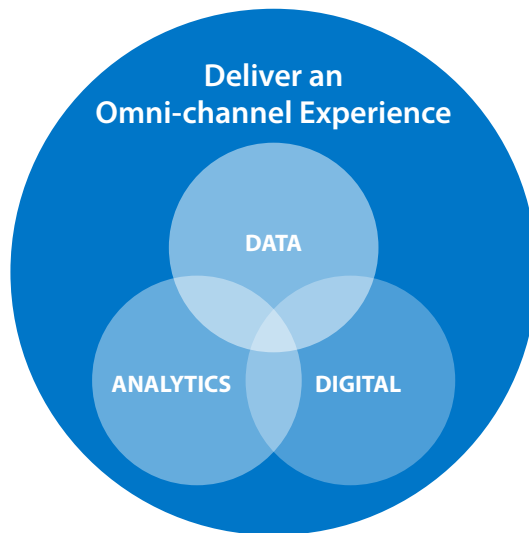

don't think their investment management data analytics meet client expectations

56%

believe performance and attribution metrics add the most value to customers

Biggest Data Challenges for Client Reporting

- 49% Data accuracy & granularity
- 38% Automation & consolidation
- 8% Data reconciliation from back office
- 5% Timeliness

Priorities for Improving the Client Experience

- 62% Online & mobile accessibility
- 23% Granular investment analytics
- 15% Client statement & reporting

Download the complete survey results today